

noble

Tax Policy

Tax Policy

Noble Development Public Company Limited (the “Company”) recognizes the Company’s duties and responsibilities regarding tax by having a consistent corporate governance and ethical code to comply with the tax laws in the country in which the Company operates and aims to use tax benefits. This includes using the tax structure in the correct way to avoid tax avoidance and encouraging employees to attend training in tax courses continuously to develop knowledge and ability to apply in the work practice according to the law for sustainable business operations. As a result, employees will demonstrate honesty, social responsibility, and maintain the interests of stakeholders as well as giving opportunities for stakeholders to be involved and provide opinions regarding the business operation, which acting as a mechanism and process to take care the operation seriously and lead to a truly good corporate governance.

This policy has been approved by the meetings of Corporate Governance Committee No.4/2022 held on November 23, 2022, and the Board of Directors No.9/2022 held on December 2, 2022.

(Ms.Punnee Chaiyakul)

Chairwoman of the Board

noble